Nelly Caleb wins award for outstanding work

The national co-ordinator of Disability Promotion & Advocacy Association Vanuatu Mrs Nelly Caleb has received an award from the Australian Government to mark International Women's Day.

She received the Andy Lynch award in recognition of her advocacy and promotional work for people with disability.

Each year on International Women's Day the government presents this award to a Ni-Vanuatu who makes an outstanding contribution to the community.

After serving as assistant co-ordinator from 2007, Nelly was appointed National co-ordinator in 2009 and has been a vocal and passionate advocate for people with disability.
